

Moonshine Road
Kix Brooks

<http://www.kixbrooks.com/>

Intro:

D7

D7

Long legged woman, velvet and lace

D7

G

D7

A country boy can t help but stare, at your pretty face

D7

I like your outlaw attitude and I like that long black car

D7

G

D7

And I might just be your ticket out this ol high brow bar

G

A

I don t care who you are

F

Yeah, throw me the keys, honey take a seat

F

Let me show you how to drive that thing

F

D7

Ridin shotgun with the bootlegger s son, sure to make a city girl scream

C

D7

I m gonna take you places money don t go

C

A

I m gonna teach you what a country boy knows

D7

F

E

D7

Gonna cover you in diamonds and dust, where the stars fall on moonshine road

Repeat intro

D7

Roll down that window, let down your fancy hair

D7

G

D7

You re a long way from New Orleans now, nobody round here cares

D7

Oh can t you smell that jasmine, hangin in the air

D7

G

D7

That s the ghost of ol plantations that burned the hell out there

G

D7

Yeah girl, we re almost there

F

Yeah, hold on tight, here come the ride, this is where the blacktop ends

F

D7

Gonna lose those lights, runnin blind, you ll never be the same again

C

D7

I m gonna take you places money don t go

C

A

I m gonna teach you what a country boy knows

D7

F

E

D7

Gonna cover you in diamonds and dust, where the stars fall on moonshine road

C

D7

I m gonna take you places money don t go

C

A

I m gonna teach you what a country boy knows

D7

Oh yeah, I ll cover you in diamonds and dust

F

E

D7

Where the stars fall on moonshine road

D7

Yeah, long legged woman, velvet and lace

D7

G

D7

A country boy can t help but stare at your pretty face

G

D7

At your pretty face