Intro:

E7

E7

Long legged woman, velvet and lace

E7

A

E7

A country boy can't help but stare, at your pretty face

E7

I like your outlaw attitude and I like that long black car

E7

A

E7

And I might just be your ticket out this ol' high brow bar

A

B

I don't care who you are

G

Yeah, throw me the keys, honey take a seat

G

Let me show you how to drive that thing

G

E7

Ridin' shotgun with the bootlegger's son, sure to make a city girl scream

D

E7

I'm gonna take you places money don't go

D

B

I'm gonna teach you what a country boy knows

E7

G

F#

E7

Gonna cover you in diamonds and dust, where the stars fall on moonshine road

Repeat intro

E7

Roll down that window, let down your fancy hair

E7

A

E7

You're a long way from New Orleans now, nobody round here cares

E7

Oh can t you smell that jasmine, hangin in the air

E7 A E7
That s the ghost of ol plantations that burned the hell out there

A E7
Yeah girl, we re almost there

G
Yeah, hold on tight, here come the ride, this is where the blacktop ends

G E7
Gonna lose those lights, runnin blind, you ll never be the same again

D E7
I m gonna take you places money don t go

D B
I m gonna teach you what a country boy knows

E7 G F# E7
Gonna cover you in diamonds and dust, where the stars fall on moonshine road

D E7
I m gonna take you places money don t go

D B
I m gonna teach you what a country boy knows

E7
Oh yeah, I ll cover you in diamonds and dust

G F# E7
Where the stars fall on moonshine road

E7
Yeah, long legged woman, velvet and lace

E7 A E7
A country boy can t help but stare at your pretty face

A E7
At your pretty face
