G A C G x2

I used to be a strange fruit
Billy holiday, then you got me by my roots
Sent the pain away
I tried to question our direction, that was my mistake
I had to ask you where we going baby, marvin gaye
I used to do it like sinatra, do it my way
Now i m the fuji of my lauren, he ll got away
I felt we had it at last love, etta james
But now i m wondering...

G A C G

If what I heard it s true
Then I know what you came to do
Love may be blind but i m looking at you
So before you pull the trigger, did you ever consider

Chorus (G A C G Em D C G Em D C G)

G A C G

You can hurt me (repeat)

Tomorrow (repeat)

G A C G x2

If you can take a rain check on a stormy night
Then I will love you till you oh, like you betty white
You can hurt me any other day, pick a fight
But not on monday, tuesday, wednesday, thursday, friday night
And not on weekends either cause I got a song to write
I promise i mma hear you out when the time is right
Let s have a talk, august 7, 2099
At your place or mine?

Chorus (G A C G Em D C G Em D C G)

G A C G x2

Is there an instrument to measure all the hurting ache
A looking glass so we can see where all the magic went
I need a button, I can push so we can start again
Cause girl you bring me to my knees...

G A C G

Hey why you turn around and walk away
I know you got a lot to say
And I really want to talk about it
Just not today

Chorus (G A C G Em D C G Em D C G)

G A C G

You can hurt me (repeat)

Tomorrow (repeat)
