Thought about you every hour, on the hour, a little bit everyday
I cut myself in the shower, the blood runs down the tray
Can I be honest for a minute?
Would you prefer that I lied?
Well you a Goddess among women, my reason to be alive
Now I know Hell has no fury, like a women with class
I take my time, I don t hurry, I want every moment to last cause in this life, you gotta roll with the punches

Do your best to hold on to something
In this life, you ain t promised nothing
Just have to find some honest loving
In this life, you gotta roll with the punches

In this life, you gotta hold onto something
In this life, you ain t promised nothing
Just have to find some honest loving in this life
