In the blink of an eye everything can change

So just appreciate the little things

What you've got until it's gone
But heaven knows that when we're old
She will be forever young

Tonight we send an angel home
Sing out and celebrate her song
Tonight she'll go where we can't go
Sing out, sing out, sing out

Woah~
There's an empty room at home
How can the world be so damn cold?
Together we are not alone

Tonight we send an angel home
Sing out and celebrate her song
Tonight she'll go where we can't go
Sing out, sing out, sing out
