

Save Her

Kree Woods

I m pretty sure that the entire song is a D-A-E-B chord progression.
Here are the lyrics.
This is my first time; if I m wrong, please let me know!!

Can you show me that statement?
Can you show me where I signed?
Cause I m praying for patience
Since I m running at you blind

Was it you who gave my answer?
Was it you who stole my spark?
You wanna save your darling dancer
From dancing way too close to the edge in the dark

Oh, come on then and save her
Come on then and save her

And it s getting late
I m growing tired of this whole charade
And I m walking wires for you
It s getting old, babe
What if I misstep, what then?

Was it you who gave my answer?
Was it you who stole my spark?
You wanna save your darling dancer
From dancing way too close to the edge in the dark

Oh, come on then and save her
Come on then, come on then and save her

Save me from my self-destruction
One more slip and I ll be dusting
Heavyhearted, only wanting rest

So come on then and save her
Come on then and save her
Come on then, come on then and save her
Come on then and save her
Just come on then, save her
Save her, save me, save her
Come on then, come on then and
Come on then and save her
Come on then and save her
Just come on then.
