

Starlight And Stone
Kris Kristofferson

INTRO: A E A E A

I just wanted a ride, I just want you to know
I got nothin to hide, I got nowhere to go
And the hunger is hard as a promise to keep
And the nights are so long and the silence so deep

INTRO

BRIDGE:

In the piece of my mind the world can't erase
I remember the time and the look on your face
And I will til the wind blows the stars from the sky
Cause the road never ends and the soul never dies

Be who you are just as long as you can
Know in your heart, I m still your man
Headin for home
Starlight and stone
