Intro: Em7* C9 D C9

Verse: Em7* C9 D C9

Summer has come and gone and you re fading like the setting sun in my mind you are still next to me as we lay there without worries

And now our hands are intertwined then and there I was yours, you were mine and as you look me in the eyes I catch my breath, I m never felt more alive

Chorus:

G C9 Em7 C9 (2x)

So I ll write you a letter, put it in a bottle toss it in the ocean set our hearts in motion spell your name out in the sand hoping one day you ll understand

G C9 Em7-D/F#m C9

So would you be the anchor cause I don t want to ever have to drift apart whenever we re out of sight you don t have to be out of mind

Verse:

Em7* C9 D C9

I m filling up a little box with thoughts and memories of us I m gonna save it for a rainy day when summer s long gone away

When our hands were intertwined then and there I was yours and you were mine and as you looked me in the eyes
I catch my breath I m never felt more alive

*Repeat Chorus

Bridge

Em G C9 D/F#m

If you re close enough to touch tell me why do I miss you this much the thought of you gives me a rush and feelings come back in a gush

You said this could be our secret at the time I couldn t think straight now look at the mess that we ve made try na save what we have but its too late

*Repeat Chorus

Outro

G C9 Em7 D/F#m Em7* (play Em7 once when you end the song)
Summer has come and gone and you re fading like the setting sun
