

Defeated

Kristy Lee

This is my first tab.. i know this is right because i figured it out myself.
haha.. enjoy(:

Listen to the song for strumming progressions.

Capo on 4

Intro: F C G Am F C G (let ring)

F C
Do you ever feel lost like you dont have a soul
G Am
Like theres nothing there just a big empty hole
F C G
And like your only purpose in life has been defeated?
F C G
Well doesnt it feel as if you ve been cheated?

F C
Well I guess if you want you can hide in the dark
G Am
You can lie to yourself til you just fall apart
F C G
And you can run from your fears until you forget
F C G
But that hasn t happened yet.

F C
I m shaking like i havent eaten for days
G Am
I m not going numb I m not in a phase
F C G
And i m not gonna think about how wrong it seems.
F C G
Could this only be a dream?

The more i ignore it the more that i think
If i block it out my mood will just sink
Why is it so bad and what can i do?
I feel so distraught i dont have a clue.

Even though its been a while
I still wave and you still smile
But you know what i go through
Cause you always get to be with you.

Do you ever feel lost like you dont have a soul
Like there s nothing there just a big empty hole
And like your only purpose in life has been defeated?
Doesn t it feel as if you ve been cheated?

Well i guess if you want you can hide in the dark
You can lie to yourself til you just fall apart
And you can run from our fears until you forget
But that hasnt happened yet.

Outro is same as intro.
