

Losing You
K's Choice

My first tab on here, so be kind! I couldn't find this anywhere on the web, so I think it's the first version... so please feel free to improve!
Cheers, Jed.

Intro

Bm Asus E5 G Asus x2

Bm Asus

Welcome the rainbow, fading to gray

E5 G Asus;

Spinning around us, making (me say) mistakes

He looks for a driver to take him back home;

To get it together by being alone

Bm A G A F#

G A G F# Bsus4 B;

Compared to losing you;

(Chords as first verse);

Do I need a baby to smother the pain;

To stop all (I) live through from being in vain;

Vanity fills me, vanity's nice;

But somehow it kills you by hitting you twice

All but my lover cause she is in me

We're lovers too but I'm losing my mind;

Bm A G F#

G A G F# B5 C#

D

DM7 Bm G;

Can I be a part of your ways

Bm ;

Can I be the moonlight

DM7 E

That shines on your beautiful face

G

You can make me glow

F#

I don't think you know...

(SOLO)

Bm Asus E5 G Asus

| I keep on singing a song is a dove | It lives in a desert to celebrate love

Bm Asus E5 G Asus

May be tomorrow, may be tonight

You will look up and you'll know I'm all right

But me I'll be searching Looking for truth

Finding a glimpse in a picture of you

I will be ready, ready to ride

Ready to roam as I'm burning inside

Bm A G A F#

But that feels good to do

G A G F# Bsus4 B

Compared to losing you
