Kula Shaker

#Dance in your Shadow - Kula Shaker#
#####

Thought I d put one on seen as though no one else has. This is the first time I ve submitted a chord so if anyone finds an easier way of doing it by all means put it up.

When I first heard this song, I thought yes, this is clearly a rip off of Norweigan Wood by the Beatles, it uses the same chords and the same strumming pattern for the verse, but what dragged me into this song is the hallowing chorus, the lyrics and the way it is sung just seem to grab me so I figured the chords out while jamming and I m currently trying to arrange it into some kind of wandering bard kind of song.

Enough about me though - lets look at the song...
