This is my first tab ever, so be gentle. I am almost positive that all the riffs in this song are correct though it is obvious if you listen to the song that some riffs at points have some simple variations which are easy to interpret. There s always been debate over riff 3, but after hours of listening and playing to the riff, I m almost positive it is correct. It s a bit tough to get used to, but if I can play it then certainly anyone can. I suggest listening to the song in order to get the timing and all that nice stuff correct.

Enjoy the piece and email me if you have changes or comments. Thanks!

- Part 2 - Riff 2 (repeat a lot)
- Part 3 - Riff 3 (twice)
- Part 4 - Riff 4 (once)
- Part 5 - Riff 5 (once)

Dm G
 If we stand here together,
 F A
 And we see the world as one,
 Dm G
 We may think there s no future,
 F A
 But it s the same for everyone.
 Dm G
 It s like the world has lost its head
 F A
 And it s like all the prophets said
 (Riff 1)
 But will we arise to a new world?

Dm G
 If we stand here together,
 F A
 We can laugh at what we ve done,
 Dm G
 All our time has been wasted,
 F A
 And there s nowhere left to run.
 Dm G
 There may be trouble up ahead
 F A
 Will we be sleeping in our beds
 (riff 4 twice)
 Or will we arise to a new world?

(riff 5)
 Look for signs and portents
 Oh, I m looking for a reason to believe

Dm G
 Will we arise in our time
 F A
 At the dawn of another meaning?
 Dm G
 Will we awake at the break
 F A

 Dm G
 Well if there s nothing left to do,
 F A
 Just hold your breath and hope it s true
 (riff 4)
 That we ll arise to a new world.

Part 1 - riff 2 (repeated a few times)

Part 2 - riff 3
Part 3 - riff 4
Part 4 - riff 5

(riff 5)

Look for signs and portents

Oh, I m looking for a reason to believe

 Dm G
Will we arise in our time
 F A
At the dawn of another meaning?

 Dm G
Will we awake at the break
 F A

 Dm G
Well if there s nothing left to do,
 F A
Just hold your breath and hope it s true
 (riff 1)
That we ll arise to a new world.
