Capo 2nd fret.
Right at the start of the song this little bit is faded in.

Then the main riff enters.

This is played with overdrive and slight * is played over the lyrics up until.. Revoulution for fun,Ah yeah yeah.

Then the Hamond enters and the Guitar plays

Then theres another verse and another * theres that bit on the albums where theres no music in particular before the end bit which goes like:

E.E..G.G..C.C..Dsus2

These arn t what Crispian plays ,their sound alikes to what the keyboard plays and their useful on the guitar.

Then theres the reprise of the Lyrics and then the very end bit goes like this:
