

Rise To The Occasion

Kurt Nilsen

This is one of my favourite songs by Kurt Nilsen and I saw that no one had really posted anything with lyrics and chords. well I just wrote something down so let me know if I should change anything.. enjoy!

| Rise to the occasion |

Am G
Youâ€™ve been down the dark detours
 F C
You have seen most of it all
Am G
Crashed into the million faces
 F C
But never listened to them talk
 Am G
Youâ€™ve got so much on your mind right now
 F C Am G F
It doesnâ€™t even help to try to solve them all

Am G
You used to smile with hope and a pat on the back
 F C
would last throughout the day
 Am G
As the rain kept falling down on you
 F C
You wouldn t let them wash the feeling away
Am G F C
Hope itself dried out in you as you heard your man walking away
 Am G F C
Without a word

C
You thought
 G Am
Whoâ€™s gonna make my decisions, I canâ€™t make them on my own
 F C
Whoâ€™s gonna rise to the occasion when there is no one around
 G Am
Who the hell is gonna believe me, when I dont believe in myself
 F Am G F C
Whoâ€™s gonna be there forever, well it aint gonna be him

Am G
In case you didn't know I really care for you
F C
I just wish you all the best
Am G
If love should come and knock on your door
F C
I hope it treats you with respect
Am G
I can not count the times I've seen you
F C Am G F
Oh just slipping away with a broken heart

C
You thought
G Am
Who's gonna make my decisions, I can't make them on my own
F C
Who's gonna rise to the occasion when there is no one around
G Am
Who the hell is gonna believe me, when I don't believe in myself
F Am G F
Who's gonna be there forever, well it ain't gonna be him

C Am
Oh no
G F C Am
Everybody is going away, I'm barely hanging on G F
No no no
C Am G F
Do not lovers seeking me, what am I doing wrong?

C G Am
Who's gonna make my decisions, I can't make them on my own
F C
Who's gonna rise to the occasion when there is no one around
G Am
Who the hell is gonna believe me, when I don't believe in myself
F C
Who's gonna be there forever, well it ain't gonna be him
G Am
Who's gonna make my decisions, I can't make them on my own
F C
Who's gonna rise to the occasion when there is no one around
G Am
Who the hell is gonna believe me, when I don't believe in myself
F Am G F C
Who's gonna be there forever, well it ain't gonna be him
