If the feeling is gone
Please Dont pretend that you still love I can see it in your eyes And it hurts to admit it I can tell if tell if the feeling is gone...

All i ask is just a little honesty all i know that you re not comin back to me you know i ll do anything to make you stay but i just have to let you go if the feelings gone there s a sadness in your smile though i try to conceil it i can tell if the feeling is gone
