G                    D                    C                    D
First chance I get, I ll be standing on your doorstep,
G                    D                    C                    D
wondering if you re up this time of night.
G                    D                    C                    D
And the next thing that you know, I ll be right there outside your window
G                    D                    C D
with a Boombox in my hand like it was 1989.
G                    D                    C                    D
Though I never had a problem with sharing how I m feeling,
G                    D                    C                    D
this time I m not so sure what I should say.
G                    D                    C                    D
But the next time that I m leaving I ll try giving you a reason,
G                    D                    C                    D
a reason that you d wish that I could stay
C
cause I ve been feeling superstitious,
D
I ve been setting my alarms,
C                    D
I ve been making wishes every single shooting star.
C                    D
And I ll hop on a bus, jump on a plane or take my car.
C                    D                    C
Buy a one way ticket to wherever you are, near or far.
Cmin                    G                    D                    C
You re always here in my heart.
D                    C
Near or far.

Cmin

G***

You re always here in my heart.
