Treatment -- Labrinth -- Electronic Earth

A great song from a pretty good album! This sounds fairly accurate and works as a nice acoustic version. Not entirely sure if the lyrics are correct though...

INTRO: A Em G G

Oh baby, oh oh baby
Oh baby, oh oh baby

VERSE 1: A Em G G

Cowgirl, cowgirl why d you leave me high and dry
You had a heart but then you put a hole in mine

BRIDGE: A Em G G

Listen - I wanna break down
You don t understand the damage you ve done now
Let me remind you that I had a heart and you came inside
Turned the whole place upside down

CHORUS: Em G D A

Now I m going out of my mind
Rocking chair, mental asylum
Everyone dressed in white
I really think I lost it this time
Yeah, I wanna break down
You don t understand the damage you ve done now
Let me remind you that boys don t cry
Isn t it clear that I need treatment?

VERSE 2: A Em G G

All day all night, see I could go from dusk till dawn
Thinking about how you left me crushed and torn

Listen - I wanna break down
You don t understand the damage you ve done now
Let me remind you that I had a heart and you came inside
Turned the whole place upside down

CHORUS: Em G D A

Now I m going out of my mind
Rocking chair, mental asylum
Everyone dressed in white
I really think I lost it this time
Yeah, I wanna break down
You don t understand the damage you ve done now

Let me remind you that boys don't cry
Isn't it clear that I need treatment?

BRIDGE 2: Em G D A

Cos I'm insane in
The membrane eh
So crazy
You make me yeah
I'm insane in
The membrane eh
Look what you
Created
And I'm insane in
The membrane yeah
So crazy
You make me yeah
I'm insane in
The membrane yeah
Look what you
Created

BIT WITH GIRL: Em G D A

Far into...

Look what you did...
Ohhh Ohhh
Look what you did...
My baby oh no no...
Isn't it clear that I need treatment?
Treatment
Eh eh eh I need treatment
Woah oh oh oh

CHORUS: Em G D A

Now I'm going out of my mind
Rocking chair, mental asylum
Everyone dressed in white
I really think I lost it this time
Yeah, I wanna break down
You don't understand the damage you've done now
Let me remind you that boys don't cry
Isn't it clear that I need treatment?
