```

C                               G/B
I leave him sleepin as I rise early
Am                               F
Always up before the dawn
C                               G/B
The house is dark, but I see clearly
Am                               F
Kettle sings a morning song
C
The bacons frying
G/B
Babies crying
Am                               F
I soke up the sights and sounds
Minutes turn to
G/B
Days and I
Am                               F
Wish that I could slow it down

```
