Traffic crawls, cell phone calls, talk radio screams at me

Through my tinted window I see, little girl, rust red mini van

She s got, chocolate on her face, got little hands and she waves at me

Yeah she smiles at me

D Bm G Em G
Sometimes I feel, as cold as steel, broken like I m never gonna heal
Em G Em D
And I see a light, a little hope in a little girl, well hello world

Bm G
Every day, I drive by a little white church
D A
It s got those, little white crosses, like angels in the yard

Bm G
Maybe I should, stop on in, say a prayer
D Bm
Maybe talk to God like, he is there
G
Oh, I know He s there, Yeah, I know He s there

D Bm G Em G
Well hello world, How you been, Good to see you my old friend
D Bm G Em G
Sometimes I feel, as cold as steel, broken like I m never gonna heal
Em G Em
And I see a light, a little grace a little faith unfurls

Well hello world

Sometimes, I forget what living s for
G Em
And I hear my life through my front door, and I breathe it in
