

Maryjude

Lady Lamb the Beekeeper

Standard tuning

Capo 4

C E
Do you find it strange when you wake up in the month of your name?

C E
Do you find it strange when you wake up in the month of your name?

C E
I know it s rather strange that you and I are only strangers.

C E
I know it s rather strange that you and I are only strangers.

C E
But I will share my candy bar and I will walk as far as it takes.

C E
I will share my candy bar and I will walk as far as it takes.

F G C E
Will I see you Sunday? I know I mispronounced your first name.

F G
But will I see you Sunday? heyheyhey

C E (x2)

C E
Do you find it strange when you wake up in the month of your name?

C E
I know it s rather strange that you and I are only strangers.

C E
But I ll stamp out this cigarette and I will trim my dead ends.

C E
I ll stamp out my cigarette and then I ll trim my dead ends. oh oh

F G C E
Will I see you Sunday? I know I mispronounced your first name.

F G
But will I see you Sunday? heyheyhey

C E (x4)

F G C E
Now, I don t mean to be too bold, but I was thinking if you re free we could go
F G C E
we could meet up for say, a cup of coffee!

C E (until the end of song)

end on C