

The Dugout
Ladyhawk

Intro: F C G Same as verse.
C G F

F
It s safer to stay with your own
C G
It s only a natural instinct
C
Cause sometimes the people you fear
G F
Come wearing the friendliest faces

Dm Am G
Only to make you feel you re the last one there when the party s over
C
And even the person you love
G G
Has turned you away in the end

CHORUS:

Dm
So tell me the truth of your heart
Am G
Please tell me, please tell me
C
I m haunting the basement again X2
G
Turn your light on
F
Turn your light on me

F
I ll tell you a dream that I had
C G
I was down at the baseball diamond
C
And seeing you smiling beside
G F
Watching the moon at the treetops

Dm
Laughing and backing away

Am

G

Saw your dark eyes shine like the city skyline

C

And then I just sat there alone

G

F

Unable to wake up or walk home

REPEAT CHORUS ONCE.

Strum F a little, then end on C .

Props for the chords goes to gobbleykins from the youtubes.

Also: There s a solo in the middle, between chorus and verse, but I haven t a clue how it goes, nor does gobbleykins.
