C# F F# G# C#

F F#

No sleep tonight, We re on the night train

G# C#

To anywhere but here,

F F#

It takes us far, Into a fantasy

G# A#

Where all the good things are

And it all makes sense when we close our eyes

G# F#

G# C#

Cause we are looking through pink cellophane, cellophane

F F#

All those years we spent running away, we never knew

G# C#

That it was meant to be

F F#

That it was meant to be

No time to find, We re always losing

Without a single care

It makes us fear, We re in a movie scene

G# A#

And nothing else is real

And it all makes sense when we close our eyes

G# F#

G# C#

Cause we are looking through pink cellophane, cellophane

F F#

All those years we spent running away, we never knew

G# C#

That it was meant to be

F F#

G# C#

That it was meant to be

F F#

All those years we spent running away, we never knew

G# C#

That it was meant to be

F F#

G# C#

That it was meant to be

A#

And it all makes sense when we close our eyes

G# F#

G# C#

Cause we are looking through pink cellophane, cellophane

F F#

G# C#

F F#

G# C#

That it was meant to be

F F#

That it was meant to be

G# C#

That it was meant to be

F F#

That it was meant to be

G# C#

That it was meant to be

No sleep tonight, We re on the night train

Thats pretty much it, my first ever tab/chord thing ever so be kind people! I d like to dedicate this to G-Diddy, the biggest Hawke fan i know.
