Starry Eyed by Lana Del Rey

A F#m Bm D

Oh boy you re starry eyed
Lie back, baby lie back
You ve got heaven in your eyes
I like that, boy I like that

Life doesn t always work out
Like you planned it
They say make lemonade out of lemons
But I try and I just can t understand it

All this trying for no good reason
Man makes plans and god laughs
Why do I even bother to ask?

Well, once you and I were the king and queen of this town
It doesn t matter now
The sun is setting on our love
By, baby...

(Repeat)

It doesn t matter what you say
Let s do it anyway
Because you and I
Have an undying kind of love
You can be mine, I ll be yours
Come on baby

Oh, boy...etc.
