

Hobos Lament

Larry and His Flask

I m pretty sure this is right, but leave a comment and let me know if something sounds off and I ll be sure to fix it.

[Intro]

C G# C Am C Am F Fm C

[Verse 1]

C G#

In through the doorway

C G#

Out through the window pane

C Am F Fm C G#

Wasn t I invited, here tonight

C G#

Give me a reason

C G#

to call your name

C Am F Fm C

For isn t this the season of undying shame?

[Chorus]

F Bb A Bb B C

Don t everybody don t everybody leave here all at once

C

Please, those lonely streets

F F# G

are no place for me to call a home

C G# C Am

[Verse 2]

C G#

The days are getting shorter

C G#

But my nights are still long

C Am F Fm C G#

Binging on the border where light and darkness collide

C G#

The swelling of the season

C G#

The chilling of my bones

C Am F Fm C

Pray give me a reason, ooh, to call your name

[Chorus]

F Bb A Bb B C
Don t everybody, don t everybody leave here all at once
C
Please, those lonely streets
F F# G
are no place for me to call my home

[Bridge]

Dm Am Dm Am
If there s little to nothing for me to call home
Dm Am F G
There s not a whole lot left for me to be shown

C G# C G# C A F Fm C

[Chorus]

F Bb A Bb B C
Don t everybody, don t everybody leave here all at once
C
Please, those lonely streets
F F# G
Are no place for me to call my home

G C B C C# D
This dirty city, this filthy city s robbed me of my soul
D G G# A
Please these lonely streets are no place for me to call my home

D Bb D Bb D B G Gm D
