The End
Laura Jansen
We had a go
And worked it out
Until the bitter end
And I suppose
I should ve known
        Rm
What was waiting round the bend
I didn t know that kindness was fleeting
                  Bm
I didn t know that soft could go hard
I bet you wonder at the words in your mouth
I bet you wonder at the sound
         A
We break the promise
      D
           Α
And we take it back
           Α
We move in silence
This is the end, the end, the end
We try, we fail, we crawl
We let the pieces fall
where they may
And the picture fades
So go on and break my heart
It s always been caught off guard

(repeat &fade)

No matter what, I couldn t get quite happy with the bridge, but this sounds okay to play $\ensuremath{\mathsf{N}}$ with. Some chords didn t translate perfectly from the piano, so I made some slight adaptations.
