Devil's Spoke Laura Marling

Am Em

That I might be a part of this

Am Em

ripple on water from a lonesome drip

Am Em

A fallen tree that witness me

Am

I m alone,

 $\mathbf{G} \qquad \qquad \mathbf{Em} \ / \ \mathbf{Em7}$

Him and me.

Am Em

And that life itself can not aspire

Am Em

to have someone be so admired

Am Em

I threw creation to my kin

Am G = Em / Em7

with the silence broken by a whispered wind.

Am G

All of this can be broken

Am G

All of this can be broken

Am G Am Em / Em7

Hold your devil by his spoke and spin him to the ground.

Am Er

And root to root and tip to tip

Am Em

I look at him my country drip

Am Em

Leathered up in all his fears

G Em / Em7

But someone brought you close to tears.

Am Em

And many trains and many miles

Am Em

brought you to me on this sunny isle

Am En

What of which you wish to speak

G Em / Em7

Have you come here to rescue me?

Am G

All of this can be broken

But the love of your life lives but lies no more and where she lay
            G / C/G a flower grows.
Am
The arms that fed
the babes that wed
       G
and the backs have bled,
    G / C/G
keeping her in tow.
       Am G / C/G
But I am kee-per
                        G / C/G
                 Am
And I hold your face away from light
                   G / C/G
I am yours till they come
                    G / C/G
I am yours till they come.

Eye to eye
Nose to nose
ripping off each others clothes
                      Em / Em7
in the most peculiar way.
