Irrelevant Lyrics & Chords

These chords were the ones that Lauren herself put on the internet:)

(For piano... Right hand plays F pretty much all the way through)

(G, Dm, C)

Lets start at the end
Becoming strangers once again
Or maybe that s all we ever were
Do you know how it feels
To crave a body made of steel?
To give your all for no return?

Cause I ve been running marathons

(Dm, C)

While you re still standing still

And I d be anything for you

(C)

But I ll never fit the bill

(F)

Cause I m irrelevant

(F) (C)

You ll be fine without me

(Dm)

And its evident

It shows

(F)

And in your excellence

(F) (C) (Dm)

I forgot I used to have my own

You won t even notice that I m gone

You consume my thoughts

I m not sure that I m in yours at all

Your mind is too far gone to see

The worst part of it all

Is that I desperately still want

Someone who never wanted me

Cause you ve been burning bridges

While I ve been building homes

And I m only your everything
When you feel alone

Cause I m irrelevant
You ll be fine without me
And its evident
It shows
And in your excellence
I forgot I used to have my own
You won t even notice that I m..

(Dm, C, F, Bb)

Gone are the days that I ll cling to you
Throw me to lions and start anew
And who the hell are you

(F, C, Bb)

For the hell you ve put me through?

But I m irrelevant
You ll be fine without me
And its evident
It shows
And in your excellence
I forgot I used to have my own
You won t even notice that I m gone

Enjoy! This is an amazing song, the lyrics are amazing as is Lauren s voice and performance. It s absolutely 100% worth learning this song
