[Intro]

D Em G D

[Verse 1]

D

Sitting here wide awake
Thinking about when I last saw you

Em

Know you re not far away
Close my eyes and I still see you

G

Lying here next to me

Wearing nothing but a smile

Gotta leave right away
Counting cracks along the pavement

Em

To see you face to face
Thinking about the conversation

G

I know I m not one to chase

I ve never wanted nothing more

Em

G

As I walk up to your door

[Chorus]

Im standing in the dark
She s dancing on the table

F#m

I m looking through the glass
She s someone else s angel

G

It may sound stupid that I wanted you back

But I wanted you back, girl

All I want to do is hide

But I can't stop myself from staring

Wishing his hands were mine

I can't stop myself from caring

I'm feeling paralysed

Em

And as he looks into her eyes

Oohh, yeah, alright

Im standing in the dark

She's dancing on the table

I'm looking through the glass

She's someone else's angel
