[Intro]

Eb Fm G# Eb

[Verse 1]

Eb
Sitting here wide awake
Thinking about when I last saw you
Fm
Know you re not far away
Close my eyes and I still see you
G#
Lying here next to me
                        Eb
Wearing nothing but a smile

Gotta leave right away
Counting cracks along the pavement
Fm
To see you face to face
Thinking about the conversation
G#
I know I m not one to chase
                         Eb
I ve never wanted nothing more
                   Fm   G#
As I walk up to your door

[Chorus]

Im standing in the dark
She s dancing on the table

I m looking through the glass
She s someone else s angel

It may sound stupid that I wanted you back

All I want to do is hide
But I can t stop myself from staring
Fm
Wishing his hands were mine
I can t stop myself from caring

And as he turns down the lights
                    Eb
I’m feeling paralysed
                              Fm
And as he looks into her eyes
        G#
Oohh, yeah, alright

[Chorus]

Im standing in the dark
She s dancing on the table
Gm
I m looking through the glass
She s someone else s angel

It may sound stupid that I wanted you back
