

Some People

LeAnn Rimes

G D
Isn't it a gamble laying your heart out on the floor
Em
Nothing short of a miracle
C
When you find the one you're looking for
G D
It's another kind of trouble tryin' to hang on to who you are
F
When all you wanna do is lose yourself
C
In someone else's arms
Am D
Isn't it a wonder that we got this far

C
Some people aren't lucky like us
G
Some people they just give up
D
When the hard times fall the thrill of it all is gone
C F G
They leave you in a cloud of dust
C
It's sad to think that some won't find it
Em D C
And others won't recognize it even when it comes
Em D C
We're all at the mercy of the will of love
D G
Some people yeah, some people aren't lucky like us

Two lonely hearts that just stumbled into fate
Look how much we've been given baby
In spite of all of our mistakes
I will never forget I was blessed with the gift of loving you
And when the going ain't easy baby
A little faith will pull us through Thank God we have each other to hang onto repeat chorus

Someone you can laugh with someone you can cry with
G
Tell all your secrets to
C

Someone who won't judge you someone who just loves you

No matter what they stand beside you repeat chorus but end with....

Some people yeah some people yeah

C

Oh yeah some people aren't lucky like us

whew this was harder than I thought, please suggest any corrections, there were some parts of the chorus I was a bit unsure of....but it sounds pretty close to the CD.
