Fragile Heart Leanna Crawford

D

Α

Fragile Heart by Leanna Crawford [Verse 1] the worst of it is over now the storm becomes the calm the sun is slipping through the clouds showing me the damage done to say that I've been beaten up doesn't even scratch the surface I'm past the point of acting tough we both know how deep my hurt is [Pre-Chorus] F#m E D I've heard that you're the God who can restore what this world steals F#m but $\hat{\text{la}} \in \mathbb{R}^m$ in a thousand pieces would you show me how it feels [Chorus] when a fragile heart finds healing hands Α the places numbed by pain start to feel again where you fell apart becomes where you begin Α when a fragile heart finds healing hands [Instrumental] D A Esus4 E [Verse 2] Е I'm sure there will be lessons learned and purpose from the pain but right now I don't even have the strength to turn the page so hold on to me Jesus cause the more I feel you near me these jagged lines from every break are slowly disappearing [Chorus] Α when a fragile heart finds healing hands the places numbed by pain start to feel again

F#m

where you fell apart becomes where you begin Α when a fragile heart finds healing hands [Bridge] Bmall the tears turn into memories and the chains they fall down at your feet right here is where what was broken now is beautiful \mathbf{Bm} what was ashes now a miracle [Chorus] Α Е when a fragile heart finds healing hands D Α the places numbed by pain start to feel again Α where you fell apart becomes where you begin Α when a fragile heart finds healing hands