Worth Waiting - Lee DeWyze

(Standard Tuning)

Great simple song. Lee used a capo on 1st fret during his homecoming while I believe the studio track uses no capo.

D G
It s hard when you find love
 D G
Cause you never give enough
 D G
And all the while you were pretending
 D G
And times you re insecure
 D G
But I ll let you know for sure
 D G
That all the while it was worth waiting

A
And when you re gone
 D G
You can listen to this song
 A D
To remind yourself it was worth waiting

D G
When you close your eyes
 D G
It hurts you but you try
 D G
To stay asleep until the morning
 D G
And when we both awake
 D G
Your hand in mine I ll take
 D G
The beginning of a perfect story

A
And when you re gone
 D G
You can listen to this song
 A D
To remind yourself it was worth waiting

A

And when I m gone

D

G

I will listen to this song

D

To remind myself it was worth waiting
