Lemon Demon

I didn't write these, they are from <http://wiki.illemonati.com>.

VERSE/CHORUS:

A FM7
You may be friendly looking on the outside,
A
but I know why you only wear long sleeves. FM7
And I know why you shake with the wrong hand.
(FM7)
Don't try to hide it, 'cause I do believe that
E A D
You're out to get me, gonna scratch out my eyes
Bm G E
with that atomic copper claw!
F E
Ooh, what a surprise.
F E A D
Go ahead, take a shred, kill me dead
Bm G E
with that atomic copper claw!
F E
Yeah, that's what I said.

BRIDGES:

Am Dm
Are you the grisly result of some unauthorized
Am Dm G Cm
genetics lab experiment gone wrong?
B Bb
Was there an accident, resulting in the radioactive
Am Dm
instrument for which I wrote this song?
G Eb F
I know you're planning on assassinating me with just G Eb F C
a couple well placed slashes to the head.
B Bb
But nonetheless I figure, why not ask some questions now?
G
I won't be asking many when I'm dead.

You still deny itâ€™s even there.

All you return me is a stare.

If youâ€™re so sure of yourself, why donâ€™t show me your hand?

E Am

I know your secret and thereâ€™s no point lying, donâ€™t you understand?

Yes, I am well aware. I know itâ€™s there.
