WARDROBE - Lemuria

Tabbed by: Mean Mr Mustard

This song is short and very simple, so I figured I would try to get the chords down. I might do more Lemuria songs in the future, I love this band.

Tuning: Standard

B G#m E

I found the pack of cigarettes that you were always quitting

B G#m E

You always leave a mess purging your pockets in the laundry

B G#m E

All your clothes were donated because none of them fit me

F# G#m E

My legs are too long

B G#m I

The thrift store is so cold and the service is lousy

B G#m E

I want to punch the clerk s lights out as he accepts the shirt

B G#m E

That was a present and the first time that i ever spent money

F# G#m E F# E

I was two or three counting on my fingers

 $(\mathbf{E}) \qquad \qquad \mathbf{F} \mathbf{\#} \qquad (\mathbf{B})$

I should ve bought you a drink

B G#m E x2

F# E

B G#m E

The events move faster than i can show my anger

B G#m E

I want to practice my contempt to not be pushed over

B G#m E

I tell your story like a thrifty book

F# G#m E F# E F#

With the previous owner who highlighted the parts they liked the most.

Ends sorta abruptly there.
