

The future looks as though it has come around
And maybe we have finally found our common ground
Weâ€™re the children of one father
If youâ€™re looking back donâ€™t bother
Weâ€™re black and white America

The future looks as though it has come around
And maybe we have finally found our common ground
Weâ€™re the children of one father
Weâ€™re black and white America
