[LEONARD COHEN] [SPOKEN]
I was born in chains but I was taken out of Egypt
I was bound to a burden, but the burden it was raised
Oh Lord, I can no longer keep this secret
Blessed is the name, the name be praised.

[SHARON ROBINSON, HATTIE AND CHARLEY WEBB]
I was born â€

F C/G Eb/Bb D
Blessed is the name, the name be praised.

[SHARON]
I fled to the edge of a mighty sea of sorrow
Pursued by the riders of a cruel and dark regime
But the waters parted and my soul crossed over
Out of Egypt, out of Pharaohâ€™s dream.

[LEONARD, ROSCOE BECK, SHARON, HATTIE AND CHARLEY]

Word of words and the measure of all measures

Written on my heart in burning letters

Thatâ€™s all I know, I cannot read the rest .

[HATTIE]
I was idled with my soul, when I heard that you could use me
I followed very closely, but my life remained the same
But then you showed me where you had been wounded
In every atom, broken is the name.

[CHARLEY]

I was alone on the road, your love was so confusing
And all the teachers told me that I had myself to blame
But in the arms of sensual illusion
A sweet unknowing unified the name.

[LEONARD, ROSCOE, SHARON, HATTIE AND CHARLEY]

Word of words, and the measure of all measures
Blessed is the name, the name be blessed
Written on my heart in burning letters
Thatâ€™s all I know, I do not know the rest.

[LEONARD]

Iâ€™ve heard the soul unfold in the chambers of its longing
And the bitter liquor sweeten in the hammered cup
Ah but all the ladders of the night have fallen
Just darkness now, to lift the longing up.

[DINO SOLDI (saxophone), LEONARD, ROSCOE, SHARON, HATTIE AND CHARLEY]

[sax]

[sax]

But all the ladders of the night have fallen
Just darkness now, to lift the spirit up.

[LEONARD, ROSCOE, SHARON, HATTIE AND CHARLEY]

Word of words, and measure of all measures
Blessed is the name, the name be blessed
Written on my heart in burning letters
Thatâ€™s all I know, I cannot read the rest .

[SHARON, HATTIE AND CHARLEY]

Cannot read the rest
Shall not read the rest
