

Seems So Long Ago, Nancy
Leonard Cohen

Intro: Bm F# Bm

Bm F# Bm
It seems so long ago,
F#m C#7 F#m
nancy was alone,
A Bm
looking ate the late late show
A E A
Through a semi-precious stone.
C#7 F#m
in the house of honesty
D A
Her father was on trial,
E F#m
in the house of mystery
C# D
There was no one at all,
A E F#m F#m
There was no one at all.

Bm F# Bm
It seems so long ago,
F#m C#7 F#m
none of us were strong;
A Bm
nancy wore green stockings
A E A
And she slept with everyone.
C#7 F#m
She never said she d wait for us
D A
Although she was alone,
E F#m
i think she fell in love for us
C# D
In nineteen sixty one,
A E F#m F#m
In nineteen sixty one.

Bm F# Bm
It seems so long ago,
F#m C#7 F#m
nancy was alone,
A Bm
A forty five beside her head,

an open telephone.

C#7 F#m
we told her she was beautiful,
D A
We told her she was free
E F#m
But none of us would meet her in
C# D
The house of mystery,
A E F#m F#m
The house of mystery.

Bm F#
And now you look around you,
F#m C#7 F#m
See her everywhere,
A Bm
many use her body,
A E A
many comb her hair.
C#7 F#m
in the hollow of the night
D A
When you are cold and numb
E F#m
You hear her talking freely then,
C# D
She s happy that you ve come,
A E F#m
She s happy that you ve come.

Final: Bm E A
