

It Only Takes One Shot

Lera Lynn

Intro: F#m

F#m

My bed is now a cylinder of steel
Cold and hard and shiny
To match the way I feel
The dust in here is like a burning wind
Black as coal and thunder
Dark as all my sins

A Bm
I took it for a long, long time

E F#m
And a woman can take a lot

A Bm
Two can be undone by three

E F#m
But it only takes one shot

F#m

You were there
To see me beg and kneel
What kind of man would ask me then
If he could make a deal?
When lovers of the future read these lines
A sound of steel and thunder
Will echo in their minds

A Bm
I took it for a long, long time

E F#m
And a woman can take a lot

A Bm
Two can be undone by three

E F#m
But it only takes one shot

A Bm
I took it for a long, long time

E F#m
And a woman can take a lot

A Bm
Two can be undone by three

E F#
But it only takes one shot

A F# A F#

(repeat)

A

Ashes become speed

E

F#

And turn to blood

It s strange to see

E

How sharp and clean

The things that come from love

F#m
