All My Best Friends Are Metalheads
Less Than Jake

```
E                      A                B
You think its strange, that there s a way
                                                  E
of how you looked, and how you act, and how you think
              A       B      E
pretend they re not the same as you.

A                 E
Do you know about her strength in convictions
A                      E
or how she puts all her faith in religion.
A              E               B
Did we take the time to really discover,
how little we know about each other.

E   A       B
Keep us from saying anything.
E    A       B
Can t separate from everything.
E  A              B
And all this really means is A
you re one in a crowd
and you re paranoid of every sound.
You re not the friend
you won t miss anyhow.
