

Goodbye In Gasoline
Less Than Jake

Verse I:

G D A C
My lungs are aching
G D A C
From the cold from being outside
G D
And the windows in my car
A C
Have started to fog up
G D A
And it s colder then I remember it ever being in Florida

C

Verse II:

G D A C
My stomach s burning
G D A C
And the stereo in this car is screaming so loud
G D
It s three am
A C
I m starting to wake up
G D A
And it s darker then I remember it ever being in Florida

C

Verse III:

G D A C
My head is spinning
G D A C
And the engine is purring and clicking in time
G D
To the pounding in my head
A C
And this heart on my sleeve
G D
And it s quieter then I remember
A
And it can go on forever

C

Chorus:

F C G A
The saddest song always plays
F C G A
On the radio on the coldest days
F C G A
Just when I m saying goodbye in gasoline
F C G A
Cause It s the only way I know
F C G A
It s the only way I know

Bridge:

D F C G
Do you know how many times
D F C G
How many times I ve counted the signs of State lines
D F C G
And roads I ve known
D F C G
I know this time feels like goodbye

Verse IV:

G D A C
My lungs are aching
G D A C
From the cold from standing outside
G D A C
After all this time I m still fucked up
G D A
And its colder then I ever remember it ever being in Florida

C

Chorus:

F C G A
The saddest song always plays
F C G A
On the radio on the coldest days
F C G A F C G A
Yeah the saddest song always plays on the radio I know
F C G A
Just when I m saying goodbye in gasoline

Outro:

F C G A
Saying goodbye in gasoline
F C G A
Saying goodbye in gasoline
F C G A
Cause It s the only way I know

F C G A

It s the only way I know
