Sleep It Off Less Than Jake

This is the acoustic version of Sleep it Off (a criminally underrated LJT b-side), I ve designed this tab to be played with open chords wherever possible (F# and C# being the exceptions). To see how this is played do your homework and seek out the live acoustic version of this track, which I seem to remember being a free download at some point. Enjoy!

[CHORUS]

F# A E

i might as well just sleep it off

"# A E

wishful thinking s got my wires crossed (whoa ho)

F# A Ewhen i am desperate and alone

D A B

i know i know i know how i go

[Versel]

E DADADA

so i ll drive and disapear

and maybe if i m luck by this time next year

E DADADA

no one i know will know my name

it s either change or go or i ll explode today

E DADADA

i ll leave a note on my machine

unplug the phone and finish packing all my things

E DADA

i found a photograph of me

В

its been such a slow decay

C# D

day to day i don t even recognize my own face

Α

i had another breakdown

Е

and i m floating face down

[CHORUS]

F# A E

i might as well just sleep it off

F# A E

wishful thinking s got my wires crossed (whoa ho)

F# A E

when i am desperate and alone D Α В i know i know yeah i know how low i go [Verse2] DADADA i m going to sleep it off this sinking feeling of always feeling lost D A D A D A hasn t been that long six years worth of always being wrong DADADA i met an old friend out on the street traded stories and out of date memories DADA she has a photograph of me В it s been such a slow decay C# D day to day did we seem much happier in those days [Solo break] D *4 [into verse end] its been a slow decay C# day to day i don t even recognize my own face [Last Chorusette] E D Α В i know i know i know how low i go [x4]

- or for the special live acoustic ending End on  ${\bf E}$  then slow strum  ${\bf A} \ {\bf E} \ {\bf A} \ {\bf E}$  to finish

End on  ${\bf E}$
