Seven Years
Level 42
                   Dmaj7 C#7
Intro chords:E
                                F#m
        Е
There s thunder rolling in your eyes
It s raining in your heart
What lies around the corner
        Bm
You have seen a hundred times
But you never thought anyting like it would happen to you
       Bm
Baby s gone
   Bm
He walked out on you
Chorus:
F#m
                 Dmaj7
Seven years have come and gone
                 F#m
All that time for you
       F#m
                             Dmaj7
And now both our hearts must beat the drum
To a different tune
   Dmaj7
                      C#7 F#m
Send all those dreams away baby
You can lose yourself in yourself
Hurt yourself a little more
        Bm
Turn the key and hate the boy
Forget a soul in distress, leave the real world to others
That s not the way he s coming back ever again
Baby s gone
             {\tt Bm}
Now what are you gonna do (Repeat Chorus)
Bridge:
Each time I see a love, a love that s dying
```

I know what I would do, I know what I would do

```
Εm
But you can t see cos your heart s in the way Girl you re blinded
And it s hurting so bad, and it s hurting so bad
But he s so gone, gone away and you can t find him
Was there ever a day, just one day you were happy
Believe in the power of love, everlasting
To the end of all time, to the end of all time
Solo:
E
        Dmaj7 C#7
                       F#m
Е
In a funny way I don t feel sorry getting what you served
Just you remember very well the lessons you have learned
        F#m
                               Dmaj7
And it s August now, your seven years are gone
            F#m
All that time for you
     Dmaj7
                       C#7 F#m
Send all those dreams away baby ...(repeat)
