

The Game
Levellers

The GAME (CAPO on 3rd)

VERSE

Bm        D        Em        G
The bar was dark, quiet and still
D                        G                        D                        G
and nothing could be heard, the dust lay undisturbed.
Bm                        D        Em                        G
At a table near the back, underneath a fan
D                        G        D                        G
Two men shared a joke about the normal folk.

BRIDGE

Bm                        A        Em                        G        A                        D
The cards are on the table, the winner takes it all
Bm                        A        Em        G                        A                        D
the game is nearly over - one man about to fall

CHORUS

Bm / G                        Bm / G
Well I dont believe in heaven,
Bm / G                        D / G
I dont believe in hell,
Bm / G                        Bm / G
I dont believe what I am seeing -
G                        A                        Bm
This is no game cant you tell
