

The Player Levellers

Really easy song yet fun to play - 2 chords all the way through...

Play along with original for strumming patterns

G C G C

G C G
There isn't much to gain
C G
By living it all the same way
C G
The years just slip away
C G
And it's too late then to play
C G
If you live from day to day
C G
You can play the game your own way
C G
There's a million things to say
C G
In a million places...

C G C G C G C
Yeah

G C G
For her it stays the same
C G
Though a million towers have tumbled
C G
And you can hear her pain
C G
Voiced in a distant rumble
C G
And when it starts to rain
C G
All your monoliths will crumble
C G
Well It's always been the same
C G
That you feel a little humble

G C

She came up to me, said

G C

Wanna know a mystery?

G C

A whole wide world for you to see

G C

You re a player in the game X2

G C G C G C G C X2

G C G

Well I ve nothing left to say

C G

Except take the time to ramble

C G

In a million different ways

C G

There are a million paths to travel

C G

If there s something in the way

C G

For the time please remember

C G

There s hope yet in the rain

C G

And a voice in distant thunder...

C G C G C G C

Yeah

G C

She came up to me, said

G C

Wanna know a mystery?

G C

A whole wide world for you to see

G C

You re a player in the game X2

G C G C G C G C X2

End on G!
