

The Road
Levellers

capo 3rd fret

Bm

Well its headlights, and white lights, and Black Tar Rivers

Em G D Em

They re dragging me around this country as it withers

Bm

The billboards, signposts, standing in the way

Em G D Em

Tell of the state of the nations, that we find today

G D C

And we play and we play and we play

G D C

To every day, every day, every day

G

Every day

Bm

And in the front rooms of old towns far from the city

Em G D Em

With beaten up guitars and hearts full of pity

Bm

The people gather round singing songs from everywhere

Em G D Em

They re torn from the nation, left without a care

G D C

And we play and we play and we play

G D C

To every day, every day, every day

G

Every day

Em D Em G

And we ll rid the bloody world for a moment in a word

Em D

And we ll rid the bloody world cos

C G

The words that you heard when you were young will always stay

D C

The one s that always stay make the world go away

C G

The words that you heard when you were young will always stay

D C

The one s that always stay make the world go away

G

Go away

Bm

Warm night, clear sky, European town

Em

G

D

Em

Outside the bars singing their hearts out to a crowd

Bm

With open boots, violin, banjo and a voice

Em

G

D

Em

The exiled buskers are happy with their choice

Tabbed by Simon Rigelsford