

Tough

Lewis Capaldi

E G#m
Every little part of me is holding onto every little piece you
A
Is holding on to every drop of blood you drew
E
Is holding onto you
E
And every waking hour I spend
G#m
Holding out for reasons not to go to bed
A
I m holding out for someone else to hold instead
E
If every hope of you is dead

Dbm
Cause every night since you cut and run
A
I feel like the only one who s ever been the lonely one
E
Trying to mend a heart that keeps breaking
B
With every step that you re taking

E
Cause you ve been running circles round
G#m
My mind, turning me inside out
Dbm
And I fell for you but hit the ground
A B
Cause the only love I ve known has let me
E
Down and I need lifting up
G#m
Now you ain t here I m sleeping rough
Dbm
And I m praying I can pray enough
A B E
So waking up without you ain t so tough

E
I find it hard to find my feet
G#m
When I keep on stumbling over you and me
A
But I keep on trying cause I know I need

E

To outrun the memories

Dbm

And every day I m reminded of the way I let it come undone
