Lewis Capaldi

E G#m

Every little part of me is holding onto every little piece you

Α

Is holding on to every drop of blood you drew

E

Is holding onto you

Е

And every waking hour I spend

G#m

Holding out for reasons not to go to bed

Α

I m holding out for someone else to hold instead

E

If every hope of you is dead

Dbm

Cause every night since you cut and run

A

I feel like the only one who s ever been the lonely one

Е

Trying to mend a heart that keeps breaking

Ε

With every step that you re taking

Е

Cause you ve been running circles round

G#III

My mind, turning me inside out

Dbm

And I fell for you but hit the ground

В

Cause the only love I ve known has let me

E

Down and I need lifting up

G#m

Now you ain t here I m sleeping rough

Dbm

And I ${\tt m}$ praying I can pray enough

А

В

Е

So waking up without you ain t so tough

I find it hard to find my feet

G#m

When I keep on stumbling over you and me

А

But I keep on trying cause I know I need

To outrun the memories

Dbm

And every day I m reminded of the way I let it come undone

A E

I feel like the lonely one, the only one with time worth wasting

В

Well I still can t stop chasing

Ε

Cause you ve been running circles round

G#m

My mind, turning me inside out

Dbm

And I fell for you but hit the ground

A I

Cause the only love I ve known has let me

Е

Down and I need lifting up

G#m

Now you ain t here I m sleeping rough

Dbm

And I m praying I can pray enough

В

So waking up without you ain t so tough

G#m

Tough

Dbm

Tough

л т

So waking up without you

Dbm

Say I

Thought I was talking to you

В

Say I

Α

I guess I m talking to myself

F#m7 B

Me and nobody else
