

The Joke
Lifehouse

Dm

When you find me in the morning
Hanging on a warning

Gm A

Oh... The joke is on you

Dm

You said you were pretending
Here s to unhappy endings

Gm A

Oh... The joke is on you

Dm

To make sure yesterday doesn t repeat
I took a shortcut home
A left on the street

Gm A

I know they won t find me here

Dm

I found out how to make mama proud
Be real quiet, don t talk too loud

Gm A

I try, try to disappear

Dm

My life is for the taking

Gm

Breakdown is awaking me

A

I m ending all this pain

When you find me in the morning
Hanging on a warning

Oh... The joke is on you

You said you were pretending

Here s to unhappy endings

Oh... The joke is on you

This is my last day
Should have been my first kiss
Think to myself will I ever be missed?
I hope... Or maybe I don t care
I wear my team around my neck
I love them so much
Gonna love them to death
Tonight... See the world through my eyes

My life is for the taking
Breakdown is erasing me

I m ending all this pain

My great escape
Is my biggest mistake
I think you better turn around
Don t throw it away
Today... Today...
