I think i got it
       Αm
                 Εm
the tiniest of thoughts
                                      G
     C F Am Em F
and in real fishing men would throw it back again to let it grow but there is something about it
          Αm
that makes me wanna go on C F
                                  G
                                        Am Em
                                               Εm
and let it spread in circles or trickle down to the core F
             G Am
                      Em
gotta let it go to let it grow
         F
            G Αm Em
gotta let it go to let it grow
               G Εm
wanna let it grow so i let it go

Mary s gonna blow your mind
           G
Leave you with a sense of high
         G Αm
                         Εm
Mary s gonna blow your mind if you give her a room of her own
         G
Mary s gonna give you signs
Leave a world of hurt behind
         G
                Am
