I let the time pass too fast
          C
I crash, you crash

                                  Em   D
You were the one, that s what I told myself
                           C
I don t even know myself

                            Em
Got my back up against the wall
          D
I let the time pass too fast
 C
I crash, you crash

                    Em   D
You were the one, I told myself
               C
I don t even know myself
                       Em
Or control my self at all
        D   C   D   Em
I can t tell what I want, I can t tell what you want
          D   C
She can t tell what I m on
            D   Em
What do you want? Let me sing you a song
                       D   C
I wanna hold you so close like a switchblade
                                          Em
I really mean that, I know you don t believe it
                       D   C

```
I m shinin  so hard, I know that you can see that
                                                        Em
I d give it up though, I swear I d give it up though
                          D                          C
We re movin  so fast, I don t care, I wanna crash
                                      Em
Let our love burn, let our love burn
                          D                          C
We re movin  so fast, I don t care, I wanna crash
Let our love burn, let our love burn
